Grale Scientific Pty Ltd change of supplier details

Grale Scientific Pty Ltd (“Grale”) seeks to exceed its customer’s service expectations, and is continually exploring opportunities to better serve its customers. As part of this continual improvement Grale is pleased to announce the migration to a new ERP software system (Pronto software) effective 1 September 2017. Pronto has been implemented across the Trajan Group of companies (of which Grale is a member), providing a range of benefits including streamlined inventory management processes and enhanced infrastructure to support and service future customer requirements.

As part of the Pronto implementation, Grale Scientific Pty Ltd will integrate its business operations with a sister entity in the Trajan Group, Trajan Scientific Australia Pty Ltd. Therefore, effective on 1 September 2017, please update your supplier details as follows:
